

2009 SCHOLARSHIP

The Vietnamese American Bar Association of Southern California (VABASC) and the Fourth Annual National Conference of Vietnamese American Attorneys (NCVAA) are pleased to announce that they will award up to three scholarships to deserving law students for the 2009-2010 school year.

To apply, please submit the following:

1. A completed Application Form (see below);
2. A resume;
3. Either one or two letters of recommendation sent directly to the address below or a list of three references;
4. An essay (maximum 800 words) covering the following topics:
 - a. Your involvement, in any public service or leadership role, within the Vietnamese-American community;
 - b. What you see as a pressing concern facing the Vietnamese American community, and how you see yourself contributing to or engaging in that issue; or
 - c. Your experience(s) in overcoming socioeconomic, cultural or other barriers.

All application materials must be received by: October 7, 2009

Applications may be submitted by mail or e-mail to:
